

Editor's Comment:

Thank you for contacting me for the editorial decision regarding manuscript titled "A theoretical study of aniline and nitrobenzene by computational overview".

As the peer reviewer's comments on the manuscript are satisfactory and the author(s) has/have made the necessary modifications based on the review comments, I recommend accepting the manuscript in Asian Journal of Physical and Chemical Sciences. A final check for the correct use of English grammar in the manuscript may be done.
